To the Le Fevre School Community,

It gives me great pleasure to announce that Kirrily (Kirri) Minnican has been appointed to the position of Principal, Le Fevre High School for the next five years, commencing Term 2, 2021. Kirri comes to Le Fevre High School with a range of leadership experiences including the Deputy Principal position of Christies Beach High School and Willunga High School.

Kirri is a well credentialed and highly regarded Deputy Principal. She has led improvements in literacy and numeracy over a sustained period and her style is highly collaborative, strategic and intentional. Kirri is looking forward to meeting and working with you all.

Furthermore, I would like to thank Craig for his commitment and professional approach to leading Le Fevre High School in Term 1, 2020. He has shown unwavering commitment to improving the learning opportunities of the students and to the community at Le Fevre.

Please join me in congratulating Kirri on her appointment. Furthermore, I would like to sincerely thank the Principal Appointment Panel for their support and extensive work leading to Kirri's appointment to this position.

Yours sincerely,
